Chalet No 5This chalet can accommodate a total of 5 people. It is one of several of our chalets that are shaped like an African Zulu hut. The thatched roof ensures that the chalet remains comfortably cool in summer and that it is nice and cosy in winter.It has three bedrooms:One with a double bed, one with two single beds (upstairs) and one with one single bed (upstairs).Chalet No 6Chalet No 6 can accommodate a total of 4 people. It takes the form of a log cabin and is a favourite among some of our regular guests! It has a private balcony and the braai area is situated in a beautiful rustic thatched lapa.It has two bedrooms:One with a double bed and one with two single beds.Chalet No 7This charming chalet sleeps 2 adults and 2 children under the age of 12. It is another that is shaped like an African Zulu Hut, making the chalet nice and cool in summer and warm and cosy in winter. In summer you will spend a lot of time under the beautiful Paper bark tree by the braai area if you stay inChalet No 8This chalet can accommodate 2 adults and 2 children. It is a lovely family unit and also has the Zulu hut shape, which enables you to enjoy the best of the Lowveld climate.There are two bedrooms: One downstairs with a king sized bed and a loft upstairs with two single beds. (Children only).Chalet No 9A brand new 2 sleeper chalet. This ‘love nest’ of a chalet is our newest addition and is a spacious ‘en suite’ cottage, perfectly nestled between the trees. It has is a pretty view and the usual braai area, but there is no separate dining room or lounge and the kitchen has only a microwave – no stove.The two single beds can be changed to a king sized bed on request.Chalet No 10This charming little cottage, perfectly nestled between trees, sleeps 2. It features a lovely, very private, braai area outside. There is one bedroom with a king sized bed which can be changed to two single beds on request. Chalet No 11 This cottage for 2 people is situated very near to our pool area. It is another of our chalets featuring a braai area which gives a "bush" feel, having a thatched umbrella. There is one bedroom with a king sized bed which can be changed to two single beds on request.
