Locating a venue is one of the first and most important steps of planning a successful event. When choosing your ideal venue, keep in mind the atmosphere you're hoping to create. Is it a celebratory event? Maybe something formal or is it an intimate gathering with friends and family, perhaps? The perfect venue is one that sets a comfortable and inviting mood for your friends and guests. Once you choose the perfect venue, you'll find that the rest of the planning falls naturally into place. With such a multitude of rich and beautiful landscapes across the Lowveld, it is no wonder that some of the most spectacular venues are found here. Our venue is what you need to make your next event unforgettable. Macama is a brand new venue situated in White River, suited for all events, catering for up to 80 people.
