Immerse yourself in an all-encompassing safari in one of South Africa's primary wildlife destinations as the Tipperary Game Lodge staff share their passion and explore the diversity of South Africa with you. We're for the wilderness, the wildlife and the wild at heart. We are not influenced by hidden commercial arrangements or extravagant commissions with luxury operators and know that a 'real experience is not necessarily an expensive experience', and often less is more. Tipperary Game Lodge lives by a simple philosophy which is to create strong client relationships whilst building solid marketing foundations that are not only rewarding for our clients, but also provides an enjoyable experience whilst working with us. South Africa is well-known for its excellent African safari experiences and abundance of wildlife. Game reserves in the South Africa offer a sensational blend of big game viewing, fascinating cultural interactions and sprawling game reserves.
