The R40 runs from a small town in Mpumalanga province called Barberton in the South of the Lowveld region to Phalaborwa in Limpopo province in the North. Route 40 Accommodation is nestled in the heart of the picturesque Lowveld region in a small tourism town called Hoedspruit, between the World renowned Kruger National Park and the spectacular Blyde Canyon, where Warthogs freely roam the streets. This small conservation orientated town offers many interesting nature based activities and tours for the entire family. Route 40 Accommodation is ideally situated to explore everything the Lowveld, the Greater Kruger National Park and surrounding areas have to offer. Come and relax and explore this beautiful part of South Africa at any of our two different styles of accommodation. It will be your home away from home. Stay as long as you like! Sit around the fire at night and listen to the sound of the jackal calling in the distance to his mate or the hooting of the Scops Owl near your window and wake up to a chorus of bushveld birds singing in the morning. These are the kind of things that dreams are made of!

PARIS BUSH CAMP Paris Camp is an exclusive private Bush Camp situated on the R40 between the tourism towns of Hoedspruit and Phalaborwa, accommodating up to 20 guests. The Camp offers panoramic views of the Northern Drakensberg Mountain range and the Greater Kruger National Park from our stunning viewing deck which is
